Charge Yanks Abused French Negro Troops

Paris Chamber Adopts Resolution Affirming The Equality Of Races.

Paris, France, July 26.—(By the Associated Press).—The government was interpellated in the chamber of deputies Friday on the rough treatment French colored soldiers are alleged to have received from the American military police in French ports. The questions were asked by M. Bolandier and M. Lagrogniere, colored deputies, respectively, from Guadeloupe and Martinique.

The debate closed with the unanimous adoption of the following resolution:

"The chamber, faithful to the immortal principles of the rights of man, condemning all prejudices of religion, caste or race, solemnly affirms the absolute equality of all men without distinction of race or color, and their right to the benefit and protection of all the laws of the country. The chamber counts upon the government to apply these laws and see that the necessary penalties for their infringement are inflicted."

Julius Fams, minister of the interior, replying to the colored deputies, said that the government had applied penalties and asked them not to insist upon a discussion of the very reasonable incidents as France does not forget the services rendered by her colored sons.

Rejoice of U. S. Express. The minister of the interior added that the American government had not hesitated to express regrets to the French government for the greatest honor.

M. Fams asked deputy Bolandier for reasons "highly diplomatic" to drop the subject. The deputy said he would not ask of questions that involved diplomacy but protested against the complicity of the French military authorities in these incidents. He then stated that the French army, setting forth how American soldiers had tolerated "familiarity between whites and blacks."

"And it is America that wants a society of nations," interjected Charles Bernard, a deputy from the Seine. The circular was not placed by written consent, deputy Mavras (Socialist from the Seine) in reply.

Capt. Chamberlain Holds Up Washington Police At Point Of An Automatic

Washington, D. C. July 26.—Capt. Edmund G. Chamberlain, U. S. M. C. of San Antonio, famous American aviator, who has been here for several months awaiting the verdict from London in his case as a spy, was charged with carrying a pistol, the case was continued until next Monday.

During the trial a civil air in the week Capt. Chamberlain was walking at night in Potomac park. He saw two suspicious persons prowling around in the bushes and, thinking them to be rinters bent on mischief, drew his pistol and commenced firing at them.

The newsmen were two park policemen who arrested him, and he was taken to the police station.

Capt. Chamberlain maintained in the police court that he was marking the officers for a right to carry a pistol, and explained why he had attempted to hold up the two park policemen. The judge, however, thought the case should be further investigated, and postponed it until next Monday.

This English Girl Dancing Sensation

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harper and family left early Saturday morning by auto for a week's camping party at Ruidoso, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pearce and their son, Jerry, left Saturday morning for a camping trip up to Ruidoso. They had as their guest J. O. Harper.

Miss Charlotte McDowell of Brownsville, a deputy sheriff of Cameron county for several years, was acting as hostess recently to the El Paso sheriff's dinner in the north. Her duties included directing the peace officers and presiding over the affair on the table, as well as the less responsible but no less dignified business of opening court.

Mrs. Margaret Morris

LONDON, Paris and other continental cities have another sensation. This time it is a dancer and not a Russian.

The dancer of dancers, as she is generally referred to, is Miss Margaret Morris, an Englishwoman. The costumes of the terephorah artist are the talk of the hour, although critics insist their peculiar creations are of unique design and originality. The accompanying photographs show Miss Morris in the interpretation of one of her famous ancient dances. This costume is considered one of the most striking ever worn by any artist.

Consider the Gas Range

CONSIDER the COMFORT of a gas range on these hot days and just figure out for yourself whether you are justified in going on without one or with one that has seen its best days. When a gas range has done good work for a reasonable number of years and then works badly, give it credit for what it HAS BEEN and get a NEW ONE.

Your place to GET that new one is decidedly here at Foutz-Moore's. Our assortment is all-embracing. From a little two-burner stove to a great hotel range, we have all types. Some of them so well bought that we can quote you the prices that were regular two years ago when they cost lots less than now. Anyway, let us show you our collection. Just see whether you really should buy one now or not.

Save 20% on Refrigerators and Porch Furniture

LAST week we announced a 20% reduction on all porch furniture and refrigerators because, as we expressed it then, these lines were "shot to pieces." By this time there are mighty few pieces left. The same reduction will apply until they're ALL gone. Perhaps you can still pick up the very "bargain" you've hoped to find. No harm to try and if you do find what you want you know that, always.

your credit is O.K.

SHERIFF RAIDS FORD'S PLACE

Capture a Truckload of Wines and Whisky at Vinton, Report Says.

John Ford, alleged to be the proprietor of a saloon at Vinton; John Ford, Jr., and William F. Ford, said to be employees at the place, were arrested at midnight Friday by sheriff Seth Orndorff, charged with the illegal sale of liquor. The men were arraigned before justice J. M. Deaver and each furnished bond of $750 for his appearance at a preliminary hearing to be held July 30.

The sheriff, in connection with the arrests, confiscated more than a truck load of wines and whisky, valued at more than $2000. According to county officials the sheriff was driving near Vinton, when he saw an intoxicated man, who said he had bought liquor at the Ford house. The sheriff went there and informed the men that he was from Las Cruces, according to reports of the arrest, asking that he be sent some liquor. He then covered the men with a revolver and brought them to El Paso. No difficulty was experienced by any of the men in furnishing bond.

In accordance with his dying request, the pallbearers at the funeral of a man in Boothville, West Virginia, smoked corn cyp pipes while bearing the corpse to the cemetery.—From Leslie's.

Your Money and My Business

Whenever you find it necessary to spend a considerable sum for a needed outlay, you give careful consideration to the expenditure. You want to get the most you can for your money. Right here is where my proposition appeals to the thinking person.

I offer dentistry of the highest class, figured on the basis of any other commodity, that is to say: so much cost, with a reasonable (not an unjust) profit added. I have no fancy frills, no expensive membership in dental societies, no professional bunk, no hazy ideals of social distinction to maintain—but treat my work as a business proposition. Take it from me, my business is based on experience and common sense. The work done in my offices stays put. Your money goes farthest. I'm satisfied with the profit on a dozen cases the average dentist must have on one. A large volume of business enables me to treat a large number of patients at a small profit on each. And mark this: quality dentistry, not cheap dentistry. If I were endeavoring to sell cheap dentistry at a cheap price, I would be offering nothing new nor different from the ordinary dental advertiser, but in selling high quality dentistry, without pain, at painless prices, by skillful, experienced specialists, I am able to cut a big slice off the average dental fee, in most instances do better work, and still have a large surplus for you to tuck into your jeans, and give you a sensible, businesslike protective guarantee.

Dentistry is a business. See that you get a business deal. Do not let the "cheapest education" abuse your confidence. It will pay out-of-town patients to consult me.
